序

十年生死两茫茫，不思量，自难忘。
千里孤坟，无处话凄凉。
纵使相逢应不识，尘满面，鬓如霜。
夜来幽梦忽还乡，小轩窗，正梳妆。相顾无言，
惟有泪千行。料得年年肠断处，明月夜，短松冈。

A snow day.
香烟南

A few days ago, I sent a person to your mansion to inform you the calming incense that you bought still needs a few days to be completed. How come you came looking so impatient today?
Miss Manshens!
It's cold out here. Please come inside to warm yourself.

It's my family's master. He thought that the calming incense would be finished today. He said that he'd come himself to get it.
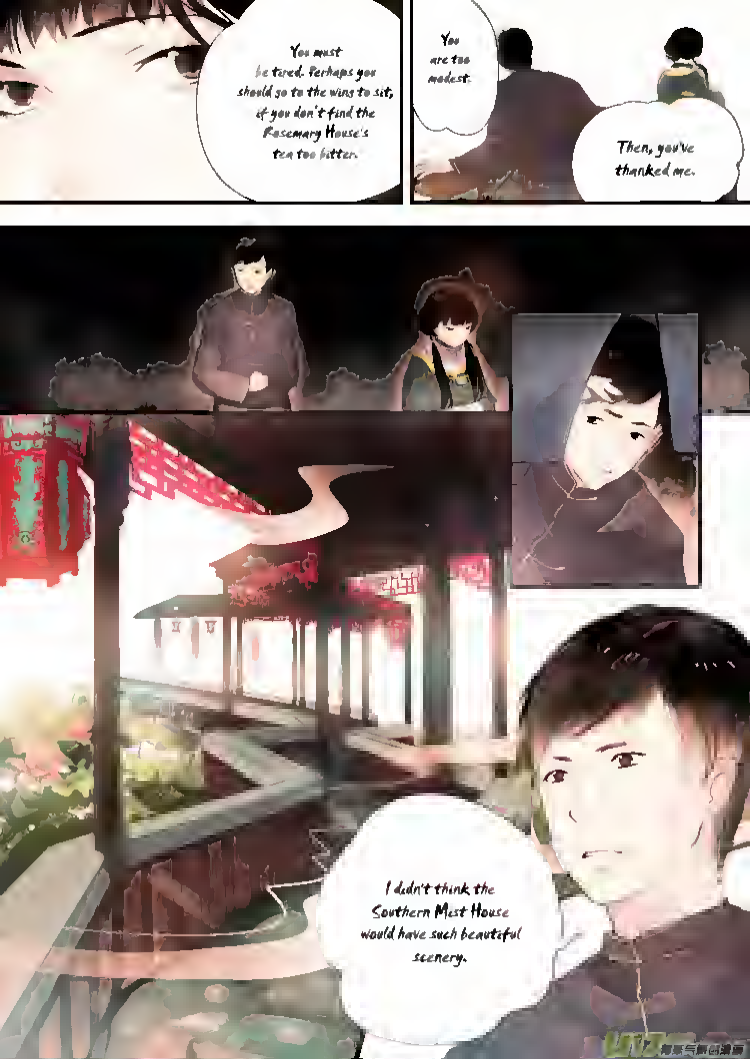
I didn't know that I had an honoured guest waiting. I have been impolite.
An unexpected guest. It is I that has been impolite.

The calming incense that you wanted is still missing a few spices. Please wait for a moment. Ten minutes will suffice.
These days, without your incense, I've slept badly.
Having frequent nightmares, I kept seeing my late wife the way she was when she departed.

General, you really are an emotional person.
No...
If it wasn't for me...
My late wife would not have suffered such hardships.
Or have gone so early.
It was I that broke my faith.



You must be tired. Perhaps you should go to the wing to sit, if you don't find the Rosemary House's tea too bitter.
You are too modest.
Then, you've thanked me.
I didn't think the Southern Mist House would have such beautiful scenery.

This way, please.
These desserts...

You're back. Did today's duties go smoothly?
I made those desserts that you like. Go wash your face.
How delicious!
My wife's workmanship really leaves me speechless!!
Yun'er.
How did I..... think of you again.

That man's daughter is so shameless. She clearly knew that you had a wife, yet still wanted to... forcibly marry to you. She used her influence to threaten you, sayins that she would remove you from your office.
I don't want to make you face a dilemma.

It's cold. Won't you put on another layer of clothing?
This bell.....!

There must be some difficult matters today to make your brows furrow so deeply.
Today's dream was too real.
I... don't know what to do.
You're always watching what I'm doing.

Yun'er, although I won't ask you to forgive me, I still want to get another good, clear look at you.
It was all my fault that you suffered those years of hardship.
Husband, what are you saying? Husband, what are you guilty of?
If it wasn't for me....
Leave!
Leave!

Go away!
Master will not see you!
啪!
的雨

Husband!
What is it?
I seem to have heard a familiar sound.....
Mother, why does Father... cough cough..... cough... still not come to see me?

Your father is a high official and is very busy.
He will come to see you soon.
Be good, child
Mm .....
If I am good, Father... will..... return.
Child..... sob
Child, sleep well..... when you awake..... sob... your sickness will be cured! ...
Mother will keep you company..... and wait for Father to come see you..... sob Sob.....

My child was sick, yet I didn't know...
When I went to send more clothing, he had already been buried.
Needless to say, I know how much he wanted to see me.
I even.....
General, you had no destiny with that child.
There's no need to be sad.
Yun'er!! You still hate me.....
You hate me very much, don't you?
Don't you?!

But Yun, your illness....
He will definitely come.....
Wait some more..... wait some more and you can meet him .....
Help me send this to the General's residence. Sorry to trouble you. Cough cough.....

How about I go set another pot of tea?
She hid the letter.
If only I had gotten home earlier, then I could have received it. And I wouldn't have missed seeing you for the last time.
Anything you could say is too late. Anything you could say is useless.
But I really do regret it. If I could do it over, I would definitely help you.
If I were reincarnated, I would definitely repay you with the world!

Master!
Master!
Wake up, Master!
The spices have already been packaged.
Where is this? Wasn't I in the small pavilion?

Master, have you slept yourself silly?
This is the wing of the Southern Mist House. How could there be a small pavilion?
So it was a dream.

That's it?
You've really wasted my specially-made poison.
If you could poison..... that person would have died unknowingly. The many years that you remained here for the sake of revenge would not have been in vain.

I can't hate her, after all.
Being able to see him, I've finally resolved all my wishes.....
Knowing that he did not forget me in that year.
I know you added a little rosemary to his calming incense. It lets people remember the forgotten things.
If one's heart has no thoughts, how can incense and powder do anything in the slightest for it?
Now, you can reincarnate at ease.

Where is the bell on my hand? Where did I lose it?!
Yun'er...
